Announcements

Writing Center

Details: The Writing Center, located on the main floor of the library, offers free peer tutoring to all students at Wofford. We'll try to help with any kind of writing, from first-year essays, to lab reports, to letters of application, to grad school personal statements, but we're best equipped to work on essays written for classes in the humanities. We'll help at any stage of the writing process, from generating ideas, to organizing thoughts, to revising a rough draft, to final editing, but most of the time students come to us with a first draft and we go from there. Our hours are Mondays 1-4 p.m. and 7-10 p.m., Tuesdays 1-4 p.m. and 7-10 p.m., Wednesdays 1-4 p.m. and 7-10 p.m., Thursdays 1-4 p.m. and 7-10 p.m., Fridays 1-4 p.m., Saturday (closed), Sundays 7-10 p.m.

International Professional Development Opportunity

Details: Faculty and staff are invited to apply for funding to participate in the DIS International Educators Workshop from March 9 - March 13, 2020 in Copenhagen, Denmark. The DIS International Educators Workshop will familiarize faculty and staff with the program's academic offerings, student support services, and other opportunities co-curricular opportunities, as well as offer the opportunity to contribute to ongoing program development. The workshop attendee will have the special opportunity to visit TWO program sites and meet with Wofford students currently studying with DIS during the spring semester. In Stockholm, students will stay in hotels, while in Copenhagen, they will be placed with local hosts/homestays vetted by our partners (Copenhagen). This provides invaluable insight into the student experience abroad. To apply, please email Amy Lancaster (lancasterae@wofford.edu), Dean of International Programs, a statement of interest by Friday, Nov. 15. Please include the following: 1. Goals for participating in the workshop 2. Current role in advising or supporting students 3. Current role in advising students/approving overseas coursework for department-specific requirements (faculty only) 4. Previous experience studying, working, or living abroad 5. Any other information that may be helpful in the selection process The Office of International Programs, in consultation with the Office of the Provost, will review all submissions and will give special consideration to faculty or staff who regularly advise students, have not participated in this site visit previously or another site visit in recent semesters, and who demonstrate a genuine interest in the value of education abroad. Expenses covered by the college include economy airfare, registration fees, lodging in a hotel (Stockholm) and local hosts (Copenhagen), on-site transportation, and meals. Please contact Amy Lancaster with any questions.

Date/Time: 11/7/2019 8:00:00 PM

Location: Sallenger Sisters Black Box Theatre (RSRCA)

Cost: $5 for students, $12 for faculty, $15 for general public

Details: Wofford Theatre opens its 50th season this week with Annie Baker's "Circle Mirror Transformation"! Prof. Dan Day directs two alternating casts of Wofford students in this play, which runs from Nov. 7-9 and 13-16 in the Sallenger Sisters Black Box Theatre, at 8 p.m. nightly. "Circle Mirror Transformation" takes place in the fictional town of Shirley, Vermont, where five characters from very different walks of life come together for an acting class. As the students and their eccentric teacher perform acting exercises together, the creative process engenders unexpected personal challenges, as relationships are tested and long-hidden truths are revealed. Discounted tickets for this show may be purchased in advance at www.wofford.edu/boxoffice. Same-day online ticket sales close at 6 p.m., and the box office opens at 7 p.m. in the Rosalind Sallenger Richardson Center for the Arts. No late seating is permitted. Unclaimed tickets are released for resale five minutes prior to showtime. This year, Wofford Theatre is also pleased to announce FREE THEATRE THURSDAYS for Wofford students! For all Thursday performances, Wofford students with valid college IDs may pick up free tickets from the box office, starting at 7 p.m. Limit one per student, while seats are available. These tickets may not be reserved in advance. Seating is limited, so arrive early to take advantage of this offer!

Boren Scholarship Internal Deadline

Details: Boren Scholarships, an initiative of the National Security Education Program, provide unique funding opportunities for U.S. undergraduate students to study less commonly taught languages in world regions critical to U.S. interests and underrepresented in study abroad, including Africa, Asia, Central and Eastern Europe, Eurasia, Latin America and the Middle East. The countries of Western Europe, Canada, Australia and New Zealand are excluded. Boren Scholars represent a vital pool of highly motivated individuals who wish to work in the federal national security arena. In exchange for funding, Boren Scholars commit to working in the federal government for at least one year after graduation. Students interested in applying for this competitive scholarship should contact Amy Lancaster as soon as possible. The on-campus deadline for 2020-21 Boren applications is Dec. 15, but interested students should begin the process sooner to allow for appropriate advising. For more information, please visit borenawards.org.

Announcements*International Professional Development Opportunity

Details: Faculty and staff are invited to apply for funding to participate in the DIS International Educators Workshop from March 9 - 13, 2020 in Copenhagen, Denmark. The DIS International Educators Workshop will familiarize faculty and staff with the program's academic offerings, student support services, and other opportunities co-curricular opportunities, as well as offer the opportunity to contribute to ongoing program development. The workshop attendee will have the special opportunity to visit TWO program sites and meet with Wofford students currently studying with DIS during the spring semester. In Stockholm, participants will stay in hotels, while in Copenhagen, they will be placed with local hosts/homestays vetted by our partners (Copenhagen). This provides invaluable insight into the student experience abroad. To apply, please email Amy Lancaster (lancasterae@wofford.edu), Dean of International Programs, a statement of interest by Friday, Nov. 15. Please include the following: 1. Goals for participating in the workshop 2. Current role in advising or supporting students 3. Current role in advising students/approving overseas coursework for department-specific requirements (faculty only) 4. Previous experience studying, working, or living abroad 5. Any other information that may be helpful in the selection process The Office of International Programs, in consultation with the Office of the Provost, will review all submissions and will give special consideration to faculty or staff who regularly advise students, have not participated in this site visit previously or another site visit in recent semesters, and who demonstrate a genuine interest in the value of education abroad. Expenses covered by the college include economy airfare, registration fees, lodging in a hotel (Stockholm) and local hosts (Copenhagen), on-site transportation, and meals. Please see <https://disabroad.org/us-faculty-and-advisors/international-educators-workshop-iew/> for more information and contact Amy Lancaster with any questions.

Date: November 14, 2019 at 12:52 PM
To: Wofford Staff and Faculty WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu, Wofford Students WoffordStudents@Wofford.Edu

Wofford Campus Community:

This is a reminder of our important football parking information.

Please remember that for Wofford home football games, several of our parking lots are designated for game parking.

All vehicles MUST BE REMOVED from these lots by 5:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 15:

- Campus Life Building/DuPré Hall lot.
- Verandah lot.
- Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium lot.
- Cumming Street lot.

Towing will be enforced at the owner's expense.

Additional parking may be found on campus in these lots/areas:

- Rosalind Sallenger Richardson Center for the Arts lot.
- Marsh Hall lot.
- Calvary Church lot (Osage Street behind Senior Village).
- Grass lot across from the outfield fence of the baseball stadium.

NOTE: The Admission lot is NOT AVAILABLE Saturday due to an Admission Office event; this lot must be cleared by tomorrow morning (Friday, Nov. 15). (No overnight parking tonight so that the lot is cleared when Admission guests arrive.)

A parking lot owned by the City of Spartanburg on the west side of the intersection of North Church and Evins streets, next to the Newman Center, is available.

Note that the Snyder Field lot is reserved for construction parking.

Football parking lots and other areas on campus cannot accommodate motor homes. Also, faculty, staff and students are reminded that vehicles should not block fire lanes or gates, and parking is not allowed on grass except for approved grass parking lots; violators will be towed. Please inform any guests of these restrictions.

REMINDER TO FACULTY AND STAFF: The faculty-staff parking lot for football games is Lot W, on the horseshoe behind Main Building. You must have and display your faculty-staff parking pass to gain access.

One hour after the football game ends, all parking lots may be used as they are normally.

(See the attached map for football parking lot locations.)

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

German Exhibit in English and German in Olin Lobby on Transatlantic Relations between the US and Germany

Details: Maria, Juliane and I are co-hosting a traveling exhibit on "Firsts Encounters: Germany and the US: Exploring Transatlantic Relations." We will be displaying the exhibit in the Olin Building lobby until the afternoon of Tuesday, Nov. 19, in case you or your students would like to view it. The panels are in English and German. The exhibit is a collaborative effort by American Association of Teachers of German (AATG), the German Federal Foreign Office, the Goethe-Institute, and the Federation of German Industries. "The American Association of Teachers of German invites you to investigate the continuing history of migration and its effects in shaping the German-American transatlantic friendship. From the beginning of European immigration to North America, German have contributed to the political, cultural, and social aspects of the US. Those First encounters took different forms depending on when and where German settlers arrived. Through a number of case studies, you are encouraged to explore these questions: ? What did the first encounters between German immigrants and local populations look like? ? How did Germans adjust to their new environment? ? How did Germans contribute to existing communities?"

Wofford Faculty and Staff:

Over the past few days, we have seen a dramatic increase in phishing emails targeting Wofford users. Any emails coming from outside of Wofford's email system will have a yellow banner (see below.)

If you get an email with the yellow banner requesting your Wofford username and password, it is probably phishing. Please forward suspicious emails to the IT Help Center or call the IT Help Center at 864-597-4357.

Thank You,

Details: As the 35th Presidential International Scholar, Lydia Estes attempted to uncover the visual representation of "la mujer," or "the woman," in the South American countries of Chile, Argentina, Uruguay, and Peru. "Siendo mujer" means "being a woman," and Estes' exhibition, "Siendo mujer: a short study of the female experience in South America" represents the conversations she shared with resilient, creative women for whom art plays a significant role in their female experiences, and vice versa--for whom the female experience plays a significant role in their art. It is further a collection of their artwork, also including her own photographs of them, their spaces, and moments which contribute to the story each is trying to tell through her work. All are invited to join us for a reception and curator's talk with Estes on Nov. 21 at 7 p.m. in the Rosalind Sallenger Richardson Center for the Arts. This event is part of Spartanburg's monthly ArtWalk series. "Siendo mujer" will be on display in the Richardson Family Art Gallery until Dec. 20.

Date/Time: 11/21/2019 7:00:00 PM

Location: Richardson Family Art Gallery (RSRCA)

Cost: Free

Details: As the 35th Presidential International Scholar, Lydia Estes attempted to uncover the visual representation of "la mujer," or "the woman," in the South American countries of Chile, Argentina, Uruguay, and Peru. "Siendo mujer" means "being a woman," and Estes' exhibition, "Siendo mujer: a short study of the female experience in South America" represents the conversations she shared with resilient, creative women for whom art plays a significant role in their female experiences, and vice versa--for whom the female experience plays a significant role in their art. It is further a collection of their artwork, also including her own photographs of them, their spaces, and moments which contribute to the story each is trying to tell through her work. All are invited to join us for a reception and curator's talk with Estes tonight at 7 p.m. in the Rosalind Sallenger Richardson Center for the Arts. This event is part of Spartanburg's monthly ArtWalk series. "Siendo mujer" will be on display in the Richardson Family Art Gallery until Dec. 20.

Announcements

Boren Scholarship Internal Deadline

Details: Boren Scholarships, an initiative of the National Security Education Program, provide unique funding opportunities for U.S. undergraduate students to study less commonly taught languages in world regions critical to U.S. interests, and underrepresented in study abroad, including Africa, Asia, Central and Eastern Europe, Eurasia, Latin America, and the Middle East. The countries of Western Europe, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand are excluded. Boren Scholars represent a vital pool of highly motivated individuals who wish to work in the federal national security arena. In exchange for funding, Boren Scholars commit to working in the federal government for at least one year after graduation. Students interested in applying for this competitive scholarship should contact Dean Amy Lancaster as soon as possible. The on-campus deadline for 2020-21 Boren applications is Dec. 15, but interested students should begin the process sooner to allow for appropriate advising. For more information, please see <http://www.borenawards.org>.

Subject: President Samhat's Thanksgiving Message

Date: November 26, 2019 at 11:07 AM

To: Wofford Staff and Faculty WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu, Wofford Students WoffordStudents@Wofford.Edu

With Thanksgiving just a few days away, I'd like to take this opportunity to thank the Wofford community for its commitment to excellence.

This fall we celebrated student and faculty research, broke ground on the new Chandler Center for Environmental Studies and enjoyed championship moments in athletics. Our football team won another Southern Conference Championship and will play Kennesaw State at 4 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 30, in Gibbs Stadium in the first round of the playoffs. Our women's volleyball team hosted the Southern Conference Tournament in the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium this past weekend, and Hannah Steelman '21 was recognized as an All-American again this year after her performance in the NCAA Cross Country National Championships.

CBS chief Washington correspondent Major Garrett spent time on campus thanks to the Hipp Lecture Series on International Affairs and National Security, and Presidential International Scholar Lydia Estes '20 returned to our community to share her experiences studying art and women's rights in Latin America.

Again this year, Wofford fared well in national rankings. According to the 2019 Open Doors Report, Wofford is #8 in the nation among baccalaureate institutions for the percentage of students who study abroad for academic credit. U.S. News ranked Wofford among the top national liberal arts colleges and as a best value school as well. The Princeton Review added its endorsement by placing Wofford among the top schools for exceptional return on investment.

This year also marks the 100th anniversary of ROTC on campus, the 50th anniversary of the Sandor Teszler Library and Wofford Theatre, and the 10th anniversary of the environmental studies program and major.

Behind each success is our encouraging community of students, faculty, staff and alumni. Thank you for your commitment to ensuring that Wofford remains a national leader in residential liberal arts education.

Sincerely,

Nayef H. Samhat
